III. EXCESS CONTRIBUTION ELECTION

Instructions for the Participant: You must indicate how the return of excess should be distributed in Section IV - DISTRIBUTION AMOUNT (subsection B). A check for the proceeds will be mailed to your address of record unless the amounts are attributable to employer contributions that are being returned to the employer with your authorization. Amounts returned as excess contributions are not eligible for rollover.

Important: Please consult with your employer to discuss the appropriate steps to correct excess contributions. Amounts deferred to your SIMPLE IRA in excess of the allowable limit may be subject to a non-deductible excise tax of 6% for each year until the excess is removed. The 6% excise tax on excess contributions will not apply if the excess contribution and earnings allocable to it are distributed by April 15th of the year following the annual deferral.

Earnings on Salary Deferral and Employer Contributions - For the purpose of the excess contribution, we will calculate the net income attributable (NIA) to the contribution using the method provided for in the IRS Final Regulations for Earnings Calculation for Returned or Recharacterized Contributions. This method calculates the NIA based on the actual earnings and losses of the SIMPLE IRA during the time it held the excess contribution. Please note that a negative NIA is permitted and, if applicable, will be deducted from the amount of the excess contribution. The IRS may impose an early distribution penalty tax on the earnings if you are under age 59½. You must file IRS Form 5329 to report any excise tax.

VI. TAX WITHHOLDING ELECTION

A. Federal Withholding

Federal income tax will be withheld at the rate of 10% from any distribution, subject to the IRS withholding rules, unless you elect or have previously elected out of withholding. Tax will be withheld on the gross amount of the payment even though you may be receiving amounts that are not subject to withholding because they are excluded from gross income. This withholding procedure may result in excess withholding on the payments. If you elect to have no federal taxes withheld from your distribution or if you do not have enough federal income tax withheld from your distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. If you are completing this form, your below election will remain in effect until such time as you make a different election in writing to the Custodian.

Please select one of the following:

I elect NOT TO have federal income tax withheld. (This option is only available for accounts registered with an address in the United States.)

Withhold 10% federal income tax.

Withhold _____% federal income tax (must be more than 10%).

B. State Withholding

Your state of residence will determine your state income tax withholding requirements, if any. Those states with mandatory withholding will require state income tax to be withheld from payments if federal income taxes are withheld. Voluntary states let individuals determine whether they want state taxes withheld. Some states have no income tax on retirement payments. Please consult with a tax advisor or your state's tax authority for additional information on your state requirements.

I elect NOT TO have state income tax withheld from my retirement account distributions (only for residents of states that do not require mandatory state tax withholding).

I elect TO have the following dollar amount or percentage from my retirement account distribution withheld for state income taxes (for residents of states that allow voluntary state tax withholding): $ _____ or _____%
